COMPLAINT

B. CLAIM ONE

Plaintiff claims, DENTON DISTRICT ATTORNEYS OFFICE, is an intended party in an intentional already planned act that will violate his civil and constitutional rights. Namely false reporting done by parties Lorna Dekold or Lorna Ovigian and David Dekold or Dave Dekold. Plaintiff insists that DENTON DISTRICT ATTORNEYS OFFICE not act on any paperwork filed to their office from those parties parties listed above as they now have notice that false reporting is intended. Those parties reside at 9729 Excursion Drive, Oak Point, TX 75068. DENTON DISTRICT ATTORNEYS OFFICE shall refrain from filing charges against plaintiff.

C. CLAIM TWO

Plaintiff claims, OAK POINT POLICE DEPARTMENT, responded to a false report and that did in fact violate his civil and constitutional rights. Namely false reporting done by parties Lorna Dekold or Lorna Ovigian and David Dekold or Dave Dekold. Plaintiff insists that OAK POINT POLICE DEPARTMENT to never enter the residence at 9729 Excursion Drive, Oak Point, TX 75068 ever under any circumstances. Furthermore OAK POINT POLICE DEPARTMENT shall not act on any reports to their office from those parties listed above as they now have notice that false reporting has occurred. Those parties reside at 9729 Excursion Drive, Oak Point, TX 75068. OAK POINT POLICE DEPARTMENT instructed not to dispatch police, fire, or ambulances units to this residence either.

D. CLAIM THREE

Plaintiff claims, NORTH TEXAS STATE HOSPITAL, is an intended party in an intentional already planned act that will violate his civil and constitutional rights. Namely false reporting done by parties Lorna Dekold or Lorna Ovigian and David Dekold or Dave Dekold. Plaintiff insists that NORTH TEXAS STATE HOSPITAL not act on any paperwork filed to their office from those parties parties listed above as they now have notice that false reporting is intended. Those parties reside at 9729 Excursion Drive, Oak Point, TX 75068. NORTH TEXAS STATE HOSPITAL is forbidden from detaining, housing, or medicating plaintiff against his will.

E. CLAIM FOUR

Plaintiff claims, DENTON COUNTY CIVIL UNIT, is an intended party in an intentional already planned act that will violate his civil and constitutional rights. Namely false reporting done by parties Lorna Dekold or Lorna Ovigian and David Dekold or Dave Dekold. Plaintiff insists that DENTON COUNTY CIVIL UNIT not act on any paperwork filed to their office from those parties parties listed above as they now have notice that false reporting is intended. Those parties reside at 9729 Excursion Drive, Oak Point, TX 75068. DENTON COUNTY CIVIL UNIT shall refrain from filing civil matters against plaintiff.

F. CLAIM FIVE

Plaintiff claims, PRESTONWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH, misused its status as a non-profit organization. PRESTONWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH denied the government of tax revenue by misuse of tax exempt status. PRESTONWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH deprived him of funds that were given for his use, and deprivation of such then caused his civil and constitutional rights to be violated. Said funds were misappropriated, concealed, used in discriminatory manner, and or spent without just cause.

G. CLAIM SIX

Plaintiff claims, COSTCO WHOLESALE, harassed him. As a result of this harassment, person issuing ride was embarrassed and refused plaintiff of all future requests for transportation. Plaintiff claims his civil and constitutional rights were violated. COSTCO WHOLESALE is instructed not to harass plaintiff at any locations. Because plaintiff lives in Texas, he is therefore unable to transport as there is no public transportation available.

F. CLAIM SEVEN

Plaintiff claims, A1 BEHAVIORAL HEALTH, was party to the violation of plaintiff's civil and constitutional rights. Namely products or services were given of which facilitated the use in false reporting. A1 BEHAVIORAL HEALTH, shall refrain from any and all activities involving plaintiff.

G. CLAIM EIGHT

Plaintiff claims, WALMART, harassed him, made false allegations, and caused defamation. Plaintiff claims his civil and constitutional rights were violated. WALMART is instructed not to harass plaintiff at any locations.

H. CLAIM NINE

Plaintiff claims, STATE OF TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES, deemed eligible for food stamps, then provided inaccessible funds. STATE OF TEXAS DEPARTMENT

OF HUMAN SERVICES told plaintiff he was federally eligible for Medicaid but that there was no federal money available in Texas, and this denied plaintiff federal entitlement to medical/dental/mental health via Medicaid. Plaintiff claims his civil and constitutional rights were violated.

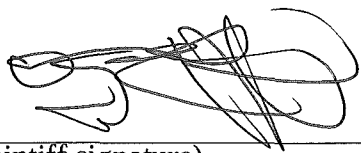

H. ADDITIONAL CLAIMS

Additional parties and additional claims will be added to this lawsuit as addendum. Additional parties are currently not filed on this claim due to life endangerment or other reasons.

I. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff requests $6 million per claim. Plaintiff will immediately reduce request to $2 million on any claims in which the party listed appropriates funds for the hiring of legal defense for plaintiff to prevent further rights infringements.
